DANCE CONCEPTS

MOVING MOUNTAINS

Moving Mountains is a motivational show with an all-Bipoc Female cast, combining Street Dance and Contemporary Dance to tell an encouraging story. The production features dancers maneuvering a rock wall in sync, while another group performs choreography on the leveled stage. A live poet narrates the story over dramatic music. With trained professionals excelling in Contemporary Dance and Street Dance, Houston's former Poet Laureate, Outspoken Bean narrates the show. This groundbreaking production pushes the boundaries of dance presentation, blending dance with rock climbing and poetry. "Moving Mountains" is fresh, innovative, daring, and aims to inspire audiences to overcome obstacles and receive breakthroughs.

ABOUT SONKISS'D
